

The conferences listed in the following table are attended by a subset of EMR developers each year. Check the announcements published on the organization's website for a list of exhibiting vendors. Compare those to the list of EMR developers on the link above this one, to see who will be attending. Conference at which MSP personnel are speaking are indicated, with links to their selected presentations.

Our book, Successfully Choosing Your EMR: 15 Crucial Decisions is available at the Wiley Publishing conferences booth or can be obtained from Amazon.com's website (or following the book links on this website to Wiley's site).
